The suspension brings Evander Kane's total to six for the entire season. The league released the following statement on the suspension: The National Hockey League announced today that Dallas Stars forward Tyler Seguin has been suspended for one (1) game, retroactive to October 15, 2018, for boarding Winnipeg Jets forward, Blake Wheeler, in the first period of the game on October 15, 2018. In addition, the National Hockey League announced today that Montreal Canadiens forward, Torrey Mitchell, has been fined $2,000 for instigating contact with an official. Seguin was penalized for boarding (Rule 24.22) and Mitchell was fined for instigating contact with an official (Rule 23.5). Mitchell will be eligible to return to the lineup on Tuesday, October 16, 2018 at 10:00 p.m. (ET). The National Hockey League and the National Hockey League Players' Association jointly stated that the incidents involving the two players did not violate the recently clarified safe-play guidelines, which emphasize mutual respect among the players, coaches, and officials on the ice and a willingness to accept responsibility for one's actions. During a three-man line change following the infraction, Seguin (Dallas) lowered his shoulder and violently hit Wheeler in the back, injuring the forward, who was not able to return to the game.
